

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Golden State Theatre is proud to present a rare special evening with Glen Campbell and his band.

Becoming a bona fide living legend isn't as easy as Glen Campbell makes it look. First, you have to have a solid foundation of talent on which to build — like being one of the hottest guitar players in the world. Then you have to record songs that will stand the test of time — standards such as "Gentle on my Mind," "By The Time I Get To Phoenix," "Wichita Lineman," "Galveston," and "Rhinstone Cowboy." And of course, to be a "living" legend, you need to survive the harsh reality of a celebrity lifestyle. Check, check, and check.

Glen's special appearances as co-headliner at the Andy Williams Moon River Theatre in Branson MO draw sold-out crowds, and he's still as popular as ever on television. In 2000, PBS aired a Glen Campbell Special taped in Sioux Falls, SD, and he's been profiled recently on A&E's Biography, VH-1 Behind The Scenes, and CMT's Inside Fame.

Glen joined a galaxy of Country Music legends when he was inducted into the Country Music Hall of Fame in 2005.

An evening with Glen Campbell, Tuesday, August 28th, 8 PM at The Golden State Theatre, 417 Alvarado St. Monterey. Tickets $45,$75,$95, available by phone 372-3800, box office Mon-Sat 1-6 PM, or online at goldenstatetheatre.com. On sale now!
